

Teaming with wildlife activities

Pāteke colouring in

Pāteke (Brown Teal) were the first species Project Island Song reintroduced to the islands back in 2011.

There are currently estimated to be between 2,000 and 2,500 Pāteke living in a wild state in New Zealand, making it New Zealand's rarest waterfowl species on the mainland.

